

Johannes Gutenberg University Mainz (JGU) is one of the largest universities in Germany. Thanks to its location in the Rhine-Main science region, the university can unfold to its full potential and showcase its innovative power and dynamism. Its status as a comprehensive university allows for multidisciplinary learning and teaching and has great potential for internationally renowned, interdisciplinary research. Almost all of its institutes are located on a single campus close to the Mainz city center – creating a lively academic culture for researchers, teaching staff, and students from every continent.

Faculty 03 – Gutenberg School of Management and Economics, Chair of Accounting of Johannes Gutenberg University Mainz

Academic staff member

full-time (100%)

The Chair of Accounting focusses on the economics of accounting in research and teaching. In our research, we use analytical modeling to investigate the use of accounting information in the firms' and investors' decision-making process.

Your tasks:

- Assist faculty with analytical research projects and publications in accounting, auditing, and corporate governance
- Collaborate on accounting research with international researchers and faculty members
- Carry out own research in the area of accounting as part of the dissertation
- Perform teaching duties at Bachelor's and Master's level at the Gutenberg School of Management and Economics
- Participate and present own research at international research workshops and conferences

Your profile:

In addition to the general requirements according to public services law, applicants must meet the recruitment requirements stipulated in § 57 of the Hochschulgesetz of Rhineland-Palatinate.

- A successfully completed university degree in Economics, Business Administration, Mathematics or related fields
- Excellent record in prior academic studies and a high level of academic ability
- Very good knowledge of accounting, calculus, algebra, microeconomics, and probability and statistics
- A strong motivation to do analytical research in accounting
- Capable of working independently and as a team member
- Very good knowledge of English and German, both in writing and speaking

What we have to offer:

- Education and training in analytical modeling in accounting
- Cooperation on joint research
- Support with the dissertation projects
- International research focused working environment
- Introduction to the international research community through conferences and workshops
- Jobticket, optional for the entire Rhine-Main area
- Extensive human resources development offer
- Flexible working time arrangements

The position is paid according to EG 13 TV-L and to be filled as soon as possible. The position is limited to a period of 3 years. There exists a possibility to prolong the contract for another 3 year.

The position serves the purpose of academic qualification (doctorate).

JGU is diverse and welcomes qualified applications from people with varied backgrounds.

We aim to increase the number of women in the field of research and teaching and therefore encourage female researchers to apply.

Candidates with severe disabilities and appropriate qualifications will be given priority.

Please send your complete application as one pdf file (stating the identification number 06321-03-wiss-mk) by April 26, 2021 at the latest to:

kronenberger@uni-mainz.de

For questions and further information please contact JProf. Dr. Sandra Kronenberger by e-mail: kronenberger@uni-mainz.de.

Data protection information:

https://www.verwaltung.personal.uni-mainz.de/files/2020/11/200918_Datenschutz-BewerberInnen_en.pdf

